2016 Year in Reflection

Thank you, our loyal clients, for another truly successful year in business. 2016 was a year full of exciting new software improvements, applications to existing programs and the introduction of new products. Our mission is to provide the very best tools to assist you in making the management of your business easier and more cost effective.

As much as we enjoy the business aspect of our relationship with you, we truly treasure the personal interface and the making of life long associations with you. ExpressTime Solutions is dedicated to continue serving you in this manner. We look forward to the coming year because we have even more improvements on the way. 2017 is shaping up to be the best year ever as we continue to refine existing products, introduce even more new additions and work with you to develop products that exceed your expectations.

To ensure that we continue to provide you with valuable assets, please take a few minutes to answer this six question survey. We take your input and suggestions very seriously and want you to grade our level of service.

Reflecting on 2016, we are proud to highlight some of our accomplishments:

- We moved into our new facility and immediately realized we will need even more space as we continue to grow.
- ExpressMaintenance was introduced as the latest member of our line of products.
- ExpressTime Solutions successfully moved its server host to a tier 3 secure Data Center in Nashville, Tennessee making us safer and able to provide even better service for our clients.
- A new version of ExpressTime was released which included features like: improved task scheduling, statistics report, prevention of duplication of employee schedules, broadcast texting for better communication and approved employee fro specific buildings.

We continue to lay the foundation for even more and better improvements to our family of programs and look forward to all that 2017 portends.

God Bless you, your business, family and friends in the coming year.
